

Athlete's Code of Conduct

The overall experience for athletes participating in sports should promote the development of healthy and positive values towards themselves, fellow athletes, officials and coaches. The following Code of Conduct has been developed to aid athletes in achieving a level of behavior, which assist them in becoming well-rounded, self confident and productive human beings.

- I will play Hockey because I want to, not just because others or coaches want me to.
- I will play by the rules of Hockey, and in the spirit of the game.
- I will control my temper – throwing equipment and “mouthing” off can spoil the activity for everybody.
- I will respect my teammates and the members of the other team.
- I will do my best to be a true team player.
- I will remember that winning isn't everything – that having fun, improving skills, making friends and doing my best are most important.
- I will acknowledge all good plays/performances – those of my team and my opponents.
- I will remember that coaches and officials are there to help me. I will accept their decisions and show them respect.
- I will remember that at all times, on and off the ice, to proudly represent my Team and my Association.

I agree to this code of conduct and will follow it.
